PART III: STATE JURISDICTION

Article 6

1. Each state party has jurisdiction over terrorist acts as defined in article 1 when:
 - (a) the act is committed in the territory of that state and the perpetrator of the act is arrested in its territory or outside it if this is punishable by its national law;
 - (b) the act is committed on board a vessel or a ship flying the flag of that state or an aircraft which is registered under the laws of that state at the time the offence is committed; or

Should any change take place, the state party concerned shall immediately notify the Secretary-General.
4. Each state party shall likewise take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the acts set forth in article 1 in cases where the alleged offender is present in its territory and it does not extradite that person to any of the state parties which have established their jurisdiction in accordance with paragraphs 1 or 2.

Article 7

1. Upon receiving information that a person who has committed or who is alleged to have committed any terrorist act as defined in article 1 may be present in its territory, the state party concerned shall take such measures as may be necessary under its national law to investigate the facts contained in the information.
2. Upon being satisfied that the circumstances so warrant, the state party in whose territory the offender or alleged offender is present shall take the appropriate measures under its national law so as to ensure that person's presence for the purpose of prosecution.
3. Any person against whom the measures referred to in paragraph 2 are being taken shall be entitled to:
 - (a) communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of the state of which that person is a national or which is otherwise entitled to protect that person's rights or, if that person is a stateless person, the state in whose territory that person habitually resides;

PART IV: EXTRADITION

Article 8

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article, the state parties shall undertake to extradite any person charged with or convicted of any terrorist act carried out on the territory of another state party and whose extradition is requested by one of the state parties in conformity with the rules and conditions provided for in this Convention or under extradition agreements between the state parties and within the limits of their national laws.
2. Any state party may, at the time of the deposit of its instrument of ratification or accession, transmit to the Secretary-General of the OAU the grounds on which extradition may not be granted and shall at the same time indicate the legal basis in its national legislation or international conventions to which it is a party which excludes such extradition. The Secretary-General shall forward these grounds to the state parties.
3. Extradition shall not be granted if final judgment has been passed by a competent authority of the requested state upon the person in respect of the terrorist act or acts for which extradition is requested. Extradition may also be refused if the competent authority of the requested state has decided either not to institute or terminate proceedings in respect of the same act or acts.

4. A state party in whose territory an alleged offender is present shall be obliged, whether or not the offence was committed in its territory, to submit the case without undue delay to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution if it does not extradite that person.

Article 9

Each state party undertakes to include as an extraditable offence any terrorist act as defined in article 1, in any extradition treaty existing between any of the state parties before or after the entry into force of this Convention.

Article 10

Exchange of extradition requests between the state parties to this Convention shall be effected directly either through diplomatic channels or other appropriate organs in the concerned states.

Article 11

- (c) as comprehensive a description as possible of the wanted person together with any other information which may assist in establishing the person's identity and nationality.

Article 12

In urgent cases, the competent authority of the state making the extradition may, in writing, request that the state seized of the extradition request arrest the person in question provisionally. Such provisional arrest shall be for a reasonable period in accordance with the national law of the requested state.

Article 13

1. Where a state party receives several extradition requests from different state parties in respect of the same or different terrorist acts, it shall decide on these requests having regard to all the prevailing circumstances, particularly the possibility of subsequent extradition, the respective dates of receipt of the requests, and the degree of seriousness of the crime.
2. Upon agreeing to extradite, state parties shall seize and transmit all funds and related materials purportedly used in the commission of the terrorist act to the requesting state as well as relevant incriminating evidence.

3. Such funds, incriminating evidence and related materials, upon confirmation of their use in the terrorist act by the requested state, shall be transmitted to the requesting state even if, for reasons of death or escape of the accused, the extradition in question cannot take place.
4. The provisions in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this article shall not affect the rights of any of the state parties or bona fide third parties regarding the materials or revenues mentioned above.

- (c) if the execution of the request would affect the sovereignty of the requested state, its security or public order.

Article 16

The extra-territorial investigation (commission rogatoire) shall be executed in compliance with the provisions of national laws of the requested state. The request for an extra-territorial investigation (commission rogatoire) relating to a terrorist act shall not be rejected on the grounds of the principle of confidentiality of bank operations or financial institutions, where applicable.

Article 17

The state parties shall extend to each other the best possible mutual police and judicial assistance for any investigation, criminal prosecution or extradition proceedings relating to the terrorist acts as set forth in this Convention.
